2. Description of the main features of the credit product

The type of credit	Consumer Credit Agreement as a revolving credit facility on a credit card
The total amount of credit This means the ceiling or the total sums made available under the credit agreement	The maximum credit limit is 1,500 EUR. The credit limit may be amended during the term of the card agreement.
The conditions governing the drawdown This means how and when you will obtain the money	To be granted Credit according to the Ferratum Credit Agreement you must first have a Current Account and then conclude the Credit Agreement and a Card Agreement with the Creditor. The Creditor will offset the respective loan amount against a corresponding claim of the Creditor under the Card Agreement to disburse the Credit through the Ferratum Mastercard. The claim for repayment of the Credit takes the place of Ferratum's claim under the Card Agreement.
The duration of the credit agreement	Indefinite.
Instalments and, where appropriate, the order in which the instalments will be allocated	The regular Minimum Payment Amount is either 20.00 EUR or 7.00% of the Credit (capital) balance shown on your Monthly Statement. This includes any interest and fees that have accumulated during the month. OR

	The Minimum Payment Amount each month is made up of two parts: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> a. Regular Minimum Payment Amount: The higher of 20.00 EUR or 7.00% of your Credit balance, plus all interest and fees from your Monthly Statement. b. Instalment Amount: The monthly amount you agreed to pay under any Instalment Plan with us for specific transactions. Payments will be allocated in the following manner: In case of partial payments, the order of allotment shall be the following: (1) costs of legal recovery of any amounts due by you, (2) the Credit principal, non-interest fees and charges, including all costs related to the exchange of currency, the unpaid nominal interest in the following order: interest for all transactions other than purchase transactions and then interest for purchase transactions, (3) default interest.
The total amount you will have to pay This means the amount of borrowed capital plus interest and possible costs related to your credit.	1,684.70 EUR based on an open Credit of 1,500 EUR and a yearly nominal interest rate of 22.00% amounting to 184.70 EUR, and on the following assumptions: The total amount of the Credit is drawn down immediately and in full. The Credit is provided for a period of one year starting from the date of the initial drawdown, and the final payment made clears the balance of capital, interest and other charges, if any; The Credit is repaid in equal monthly payments, commencing one month after the date of the initial drawdown. The interest and other fees shall be applied in accordance with the drawdowns and repayments of capital and as provided for in the card agreement. The above assumptions and calculations are being provided to enable you to compare offers with those of third parties and understand the extent of your obligations. The total amount payable specified above remains correct only if the assumptions explained above are respected. Therefore, the total amount payable will be different if you draw down a different amount and/or make repayment in a different way. For example, if you pay only the Minimum Payment Amount, the total amount repayable will be higher and total repayment period longer. The total amount payable by you depends on the total amount drawn on the credit and the duration of the repayment period.
If applicable, sureties required This is a description of the security to be provided by you in relation to the credit agreement.	Wage and salary transfer

Conditions under which the above mentioned costs related to the credit agreement can be changed	When you utilise a service listed in the List of Prices and Services the fees quoted therein at this point in time shall, unless otherwise agreed upon in this respect, apply. Any payment you make beyond the agreed fee for the principal service shall be subject to express agreement between you and the Creditor. Unless otherwise agreed upon, the fee for services not listed in List of Prices and Services shall be governed by the statutory provisions, insofar as such services are rendered on your behalf or in your presumed interest and are, judging by the circumstances, to be expected only in return for a fee. The Creditor shall not charge fees for a service that the Creditor is legally obliged to render free of charge or is obliged to render free of charge as a result of a contractual subsidiary duty, or that it performs in its own interest. In case of a cost increase and to maintain the equivalence ratio, once a quarter the Creditor can change the amount of the fees mentioned in the List of Prices and Services by disclosing the individual cost components and their weighting in the calculation of the overall price. Cost reductions are to be passed on to you in the same manner.
Costs in the case of late payments Missing Payment could have severe consequences for you (e.g. forced sale) and make obtaining credit more difficult	You will be charged In the case of late payment, default interest is charged at the default interest rate set out in § 288 (1) 2 of the German Civil Code (BGB), 5% per annum over the basic interest rate, set by Deutsche Bundesbank on the 1st of January and 1st of July each year and will be changed according to changes of this reference rate. At the date of the Credit Agreement the default interest is 7.27% per annum. In individual cases, the Creditor may prove a higher loss, or you may prove a lower loss. You will also be charged a reminder letter fee of EUR 5 for each reminder letter sent. Reminder letters shall be sent as follows: at seven days past due date (DPD), 30 DPD, 45 DPD, 60 DPDP and 75 DPD. Missing payments could also result in: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - The termination of the Credit Agreement - Registering you as a bad debtor in databases - payment of additional charges or penalties; - negative affect on your credit rating, making it more difficult or expensive for you to obtaining credit in future; - legal action being taken against you. Furthermore, you will not be allowed to make further drawdowns while you are in default and your card agreement may be terminated.

4. Other important legal aspects

Right of Withdrawal	Yes

You have the right to withdraw from the credit agreement within a period of 14 running days.
Early Repayment You have the right to repay the credit early at any time in full or partially.	Yes
Consultation of a database The creditor must inform you immediately and without charge of the result of a consultation of a database, if a credit application is rejected on the basis of such a consultation. This does not apply if the provision of such information is prohibited by European Community law or is contrary to objectives of public policy or public security.	The Creditor consults internal and/or external databases for the purposes of assessing creditworthiness. If the customer's application is rejected based on information obtained from an external database, you shall be informed (without delay or charge) of this decision as well as the name and contact details for that agency.
Right to a draft agreement You have the right, upon request, to obtain a copy of the draft credit agreement free of charge. This provision does not apply if the creditor is at the time of the request unwilling to proceed to the conclusion of the credit agreement with you.	Yes, you are entitled to a draft agreement, unless your credit application has been rejected.
The period of time during which the creditor is bound by the pre-contractual information	This information is valid from your date of application for a SweepBank Credit Card until 30 days later.

- 18) account maintenance fees charged in connection with the consumer Credit Agreement, as well as the conditions under which the fees may be adjusted if the lender requires the conclusion of an account maintenance agreement, and any other costs, in particular in connection with the disbursement or the use of a payment instrument with which both payment transactions and withdrawals may be made, as well as the conditions under which the costs may be adjusted;
- 19) all other contractual conditions.

Section 3 - Consequences of withdrawal

If the Credit has already been drawn down, the Borrower must repay it within 30 days at the latest and pay the agreed debit interest for the period between disbursement and repayment of the Credit. The period begins with the dispatch of the revocation declaration. For the period between disbursement and repayment, if the Credit is fully drawn down, an interest amount of EUR per day for purchase transactions and per day for other transactions is payable. This amount is reduced accordingly if the loan was only partially utilized.

Special circumstances for other contracts

The law taken by the creditor as a basis for the establishment of relations with you before the conclusion of the credit contract	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - If the borrower has a right of revocation with regard to the Card Agreement, the lender's claims for payment of interest and costs from the rescission of the Credit Agreement against the borrower are excluded in the event of the effective revocation of the Card Agreement. - If the borrower is no longer bound by the Card Agreement due to the revocation of this Credit Agreement, the services received by both parties must be returned to this extent. - If, as a result of the revocation of the Credit Agreement, the borrower is no longer bound by the further contract or is no longer bound by the Credit Agreement as a result of the revocation of the further contract, the following shall apply in addition: If the Credit has already accrued to the borrower's contractual partner under the Card Agreement when the revocation takes effect, the lender shall assume the rights and obligations of the contractual partner under the further contract in relation to the borrower with regard to the legal consequences of the revocation. Objections to related contracts The borrower may refuse to repay the Credit insofar as objections would entitle him to refuse to perform his performance towards the contractual partner under the related contract. This does not apply if the financed consideration is less than EUR 200 or if the legal basis for the objection is based on an agreement concluded between the borrower and the other contractual partner after the conclusion of the Credit Agreement. If the borrower can demand cure from the other contractual partner, he can only refuse to repay the Credit if the cure has failed Upon revocation of this contract, you shall also no longer be bound by a contract related to this contract if the related contract concerns a service provided by us or a third party on the basis of an agreement between us and the third party. German law
Clause stipulating the governing law applicable to the credit agreement and/or the competent court	The Credit Agreement and the business relationship between you and Ferratum shall be governed by German law. Any mandatory protection granted under German law for the purpose of consumer protection shall apply to you. You may only bring proceedings against Ferratum in the Member State of the European Union where you are domiciled or in Malta. Ferratum may bring proceedings against you in the Member State of the European Union where you are domiciled. Both parties may bring a counter-claim in the court where the original claim is pending.
If applicable Language regime	Information and contractual terms will be supplied in German and/or English. With your consent, we intend to communicate in German during the duration of the card agreement. We may additionally provide you with communications in English.
(c) concerning redress

Existence of and access to out-of-court complaint and redress mechanism

In case you have any complaints, you are entitled to file them directly with the Creditor, using the contact data provided above or on its Website. Complaints shall be settled by negotiations. You can file the complaint in writing (including email), specifying therein: (a) your name, surname, address of the place of residence and contact information; (b) date of submission of the complaint letter and (c) the nature of the conflict, your claim and substantiation thereof. You shall enclose copies of documents certifying the transaction as well as other documents substantiating the complaint (if possible). An electronically submitted complaint shall not require a signature. The Creditor shall acknowledge receipt of the complaint within two (2) working days and provide a reply (either by email or post) to you within 15 business days from the day of receipt of the submission specifying that if you are not happy with the answer provided, you may submit a complaint to any of the following entities:

- a. For the settlement of disputes with the Creditor, you have the option of appealing to the conciliation board at the Deutsche Bundesbank in accordance with § 14 para. 1 no. 2 of the German Act on Injunctions (Unterlassungsklagengesetz). The language of the proceedings is German. The proceedings are free of charge for the borrowers; expenses (e.g. postage and telephone costs) are not reimbursed.

You are free to be represented by a lawyer or other persons authorised to provide legal services. However, the Financial Arbitration Board Ordinance does not provide for the reimbursement of lawyer's fees or the costs of other persons authorised to provide legal services.

The complaint must be submitted in text form (e.g. letter, fax, e-mail) to:

Deutschen Bundesbank – Schlichtungsstelle
Postfach 10 06 02, 60006 Frankfurt am Main or Wilhelm-Epstein-Straße 14, 60431 Frankfurt am Main

Or e-mail: info@bundesbank.de.

The application must describe the dispute to be arbitrated and state a concrete request. If necessary, further documents required to understand the dispute (e.g. contracts, statements of account, billings statements, correspondence) must be attached to the application. You must affirm that:

- proceedings concerning the same dispute have neither been conducted nor are pending before a consumer arbitration board,
- the dispute has not been decided by a court by way of a judgment on the merits or the dispute is not pending before a court,
- the dispute has not been settled by compromise or otherwise, and
- an application for legal aid in respect of the dispute has not been rejected because the intended legal action did not offer sufficient prospects of success or appeared to be arbitrary.

According to the Financial Conciliation Board Ordinance, the arbitrator will refuse to conduct conciliation proceedings if:

- proceedings concerning the same dispute have neither been conducted nor are pending before a consumer arbitration board,

- the dispute has not been decided by a court by way of a judgment on the merits or the dispute is not pending before a court,
- the dispute has not been settled by compromise or otherwise,
- an application for legal aid in respect of the dispute has not been rejected because the intended legal action did not offer sufficient prospects of success or appeared to be arbitrary
- no sufficient application has been made,
- the dispute does not fall within the jurisdiction of the conciliation body and the application is not to be submitted to a competent consumer conciliation body,
- the claim which is the subject of the dispute is time-barred and the bank has raised the defence of limitation.

In addition, the conduct of a conciliation procedure may also be refused if a fundamental legal question relevant to the conciliation of the dispute has not been clarified or facts that are decisive for the content of a conciliation proposal remain in dispute because the facts cannot be clarified by the conciliation body.

The Deutsche Bundesbank currently also publishes a form for the conciliation application on the internet at <https://www.bundesbank.de/de/service/schlichtungsstelle/-/dokumente-613584>.

- b. In the event of disputes arising from contracts concluded via a website or by other electronic means (online contracts), you also has the option of using the online dispute resolution platform (OS platform) established by the European Commission at <http://ec.europa.eu/consumers/odr/> for the out-of-court settlement of disputes with the Bank; it can be used free of charge and in all EU languages, Icelandic and Norwegian. A complaint submitted via the ODR platform will be processed if the electronic complaint form on the website has been completed in full in accordance with the specifications formulated in the complaint form. In particular, the form must contain information on the bank, the subject of the complaint, the reason for the complaint, the specific claim and the contact details of you. The information on the Creditor must be provided instead of the information on the "trader" provided in the complaint form. You may digitally attach documents supporting their complaint.

After receipt of a fully completed complaint form, the ODR platform will work towards reaching an agreement between the Creditor and you on an alternative dispute resolution body (in Germany: consumer arbitration board) - hereinafter referred to as "ADR entity". The ODR platform automatically and immediately forwards the complaint to the ADR entity on which the parties have agreed. However, if the parties cannot agree on an ADR entity within 30 calendar days after submission of the complaint form or if the ADR entity refuses to process the dispute, the complaint will not be processed further and you will be informed accordingly.

- c. you may file a complaint with the Federal Financial Supervisory Authority (Bundesanstalt für Finanzdienstleistungsaufsicht, BaFin) pursuant to § 4b of the Financial Services Supervision Act (Finanzdienstleistungsaufsichtsgesetz) on the grounds of alleged violations of provisions whose compliance is monitored by the BaFin.

The procedure is free of charge for you; expenses (e.g. postage and telephone costs) are not reimbursed.

You are free to be represented by another person. In this case, the right of representation must be proven by a corresponding power of attorney and a copy of the power of attorney must be enclosed with the complaint.

The complaint must be sent in text form (e.g. letter, fax, e-mail) to:

Bundesanstalt für Finanzdienstleistungsaufsicht
Graurheindorfer Strasse 108
53117 Bonn

Fax: + 49 228 4108-1550

E-mail: poststelle@bafin.de.

In addition, the complaint can also be submitted to BaFin via an online form, available at <https://www.bafin.buergerservicebund.de/Formular/Banken>. BaFin has commissioned the consumer telephone in Rostock to receive complaints submitted with these forms for BaFin and then forward them to BaFin for processing.

The complaint must contain:

The name and address of the complainant and of you (unless they are the same person), the name and address of the bank, the type of business relationship and the account or your number. In addition, the matter of the complaint must be explained as precisely as possible. If necessary, copies of other documents required to understand the case (e.g. contracts, statements, insurance certificates and correspondence) must be attached to the complaint.

In case of doubt, the borrower can find out in advance from BaFin's free consumer telephone (0800/ 2 100 500; Monday to Friday from 8.00 a.m. to 6.00 p.m.) whether the BaFin can help with the specific complaint.

- d. You may additionally submit his or her complaint directly or via the Office of the Arbiter for Financial Services, N/S in Regional Road, Msida MSD 1920, Malta, website financialarbiter.org.mt or by phone at Tel. +356 800 72366 and +356 21249245. In the case of a complaint filed with the Arbiter for Financial Services you will be required to provide your personal details, the name of the Creditor, the product or service you are complaining about, the reason/s for the complaint and the remedy that you are seeking. You will also be requested to provide the letter of complaint submitted to the Creditor allowing 15 working days for the Creditor to reply, the reply submitted by the Creditor, relevant documentation relating to the product you are complaining about and other documentation in support of your complaint. You will need to pay 25 EUR for the procedure.

Any of these entities may request that you first direct your complaints to the Creditor before filing a complaint with them.

	If it is not possible for the Creditor to reply within 15 business days due to objective reasons, the Creditor shall inform you of this without delay, specifying a reasonable time period (not exceeding 35 business days) within which the reply shall be provided and giving the reason why this extension is necessary. If the Creditor refuses your request it shall provide reasons for such refusal. If the Creditor does not provide a reply within the time period specified herein, it shall be considered that the Creditor has refused your request.
